Library Negotiations At Stalemate

Declaring that the salary offer made by trustees of the board of the Placentia Library District is too low, employees of the district this week said they have reached a stalemate in their negotiations with the board and have requested that a third party be brought in to mediate.

Speaking for the group, which has recently allied itself with the Orange County Employees Association, Jim Harker stated that "we are disappointed...we need a third party." Harker is a staff member of OCEA and is not a library employee.

Harker stated that the groups are currently 5 per cent apart in the negotiations with the library board offering a 10 per cent boost in pay and the OCEA members rejecting.

"Our final offer to them is a 15 per cent increase," Harker explained. "The Placentia salaries are 30 to 40 per cent below the average in the county," Harker declared.

David Snow, Director of the Library District said that trustees had also made an alternative offer of 13 per cent without dependent insurance coverage. "that has been offered and turned down," he reports.

Snow revealed the board's offer as a 10 per cent salary increase, the addition of two salary classifications, payment of medical insurance premiums for one dependent, benefits of one half value to part time employees within the classifications of clerk, library assistant and librarian. Also establishment of a nine-step salary schedule with the top position obtainable in three and one half years and a grievance policy.

"These benefits are in addition to the current benefits of full payment of medical insurance premiums for employees, full payment of a retirement program equal to 7 per cent of each employees gross salary, two weeks vacation per year for service of less than five years, three weeks for service between five and ten years and four weeks for service after ten years."

Harker said that the two groups are "$8,000 apart," and that his group believes trustees should dip into their reserves to meet the additional demand from the employees.

"We don't think the citizens of Placentia want the employees to subsidize the library's operation," he stated.

He said the current salaries, which his group finds objectionable include library clerk, starting at $430 a month going to $522 in nine different steps; library assistant, which goes from $530 a month to $677 in nine steps and a librarian, requiring a master's degree, starting at $629 a month up to $887 in 15 steps, requiring seven years.

"We asked for a third party to help solve the dilemma," Harker stated. "We asked for an arbitrator and that was rejected. We asked for a fact finder just to make a recommendation about what should be done. We asked for a mediator. All were rejected."

"We have had good negotiations, Harker stated, "but now we're at an impasse."

Snow said that the employees group originally requested a 28.5 per cent to 41.2 per cent increase, three weeks paid vacation after three years of employment and a one per cent cost of living increase with each one half per cent boost in the consumer price index and medical insurance for all employees.

"All part time employees were asked to receive 20 hours employment and half of the benefits," Snow reported.

Victor Michel, president of the board of trustees, said that the board had achieved a balanced budget by taking monies out of supplies and expenses. Trustees who have not finally voted on their budget will consider the document again at a special meeting June 27 in the meeting room at the library.

Harker said he believed the 15 per cent wage increase can be achieved "without a tax increase."

Study Of Downtown Ordered

The Placentia City Council at its last meeting, ordered a study made by city staff of buildings in the old Placentia downtown section around Santa Fe Street.

Councilman Jack Gomez suggested that some of the buildings could be "absolutely dangerous." "I would suggest to the city council that we run a study...and bring back to this council for abatement procedures if we have to...They are a fire hazard and they are certainly not attractive."

Councilman George DeJesus, seconding the motion added, "I don't think we should be concerned about esthetics...we should be concerned about the safety."

The motion for the study passed.

Teens To Count Things That Go Whiz In The Day

Teen age volunteers are being sought to count all those things that go whizzing by.

The annual traffic count, a county-wide venture, has been scheduled for July 20 and 21.

Teenagers, who have two to four hours or longer to contribute on those days, are encouraged to contact Tom Risher of the Placentia Engineering Division, Placentia City Hall, 993-8131.

Counting hours, on a Sunday and Monday, will run from 6 a.m. to 10 a.m. both days.

The annual county traffic count, used to verify the adequacy of local streets for present traffic loads and truck traffic, is also available to project future traffic demands, Ben Minamide, Placentia City Engineer explained.

The count this year will again take place at the city's major intersection Yorba Linda and Kraemer Boulevards. An innovation this year will add an additional count on bicycles, Minamide stated.

GOOD OLD DAYS is the them of the 1975 Orange County Fair, which opens Friday, July 11 in Costa Mesa through July 20. Here, in some Hillbilly Hijinks is Miss Placentia, Heidi Liebl, who was among the 15 contestants for the title of Queen of the Fair. Li'l Abner is Clancy Pouncey of Buena Park and the pair is clowning with some of the props on the Fairgrounds. Miss Placentia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Liebl.

Tigers Win Title

The Placentia Little League American Division Tigers have won the Placentia Little League Championship by beating the National Division Rangers.

The Tigers are sponsored by McGarvey-Clark Realty and the Rangers by the Placentia Courier.

The score in the hard fought game Saturday was 4 to 2, with Phillip Thompson, hitting a home run with one on, for the Ranger's only score.

Bringing the local season to a close, Inter-City play will now begin between Placentia, Yorba Linda and Brea with the opening game at 5:30 p.m., Thursday, June 26 at Brea's Arivosta Park. Contestants will be Placentia's Tigers and a team from Yorba Linda.

The second game will be played at 7:45 p.m. at Brea and will pit Brea against the Placentia Rangers.

The final game for the Inter-City Championship will be played at 12 noon in Brea on Saturday, June 28. The Brea Park is located on Imperial Highway just west of Brea Boulevard.

The Inter-City Tournament which began two years ago, has been won both years by the Placentia Tigers.

Placentia also will participate in the All Star Tournament with two teams. The National All Stars will be

Placentians Pay Over A Million In Utility Tax

Placentians have paid in more than a million dollars in tax assessments on their utility bills, since the tax was first levied on September 15, 1970.

The exact figure through May 30, 1975 is $1,259,579 in utility tax funds, Frank Dunnavant, the city's Director of Finance reports.

Augmenting the property tax, which has been dropped slightly by the city council, the utility tax, which levies a 5 per cent assessment against all utilities used, has continued to grow, Dunnavant revealed.

In the fiscal year, 1970-1971 the tax brought in $90,936. In 1971-72, $226,620; in 1972-73, $260,679; in 1973-74, $295,395 and through May 30, 1974-75, $385,949.

Further, Placentia's assessed valuation for the coming year is now estimated at just under $100,000,000 or more precisely $99,400,000. With the current local city government tax rate of $1.24 for $100 assessed valuation, this could net the city $1,232,560 of its $5 million budget. A major source of income added to this is the ever increasing utility tax.

The five-year-old utility tax has again come under scrutiny with recent discussions in the Placentia City Council as to the uses for which it can be expanded. Some of the councilmen who voted it in say that it was specifically earmarked for capital improvements and cannot be spent for services or salaries or wages.

Other council members would favor using it to fund the paramedics program, for example, although that use would be principally for salaries.

Expenditures to date, authorized from the utility tax funds include, 1971-72; city vehicles, $7,601; offset duplicator, $11,089; police radio changeover, $6,884; payment on fire truck, $11,055; payment on street sweeper, $3,248; payment on tractor, $2,130; architect fees, $15,886 and tennis court lights at El Dorado High School, $9,331 for a total of $67,224.

In 1972-73, expenditures were: 14 automobiles, $39,640; four trucks, $15,346; payment on street sweeper, $3,089; payment on fire truck, $10,494; payment on tractor, $2,026 and compressor, $6,421 for a total of $77,016.

In 1973-74; cleanup of corporation yard site, $977; four vehicles for police, $14, 368; equipment for police vehicles, $854; payment on fire truck, $9,954; Mission Bell lights, $5,431; dump truck, $8,525; pickup truck $2,418; street sweeper, $20,516; Suzuki Unitruck, $1,699 and sprinklers in the medians, $2,160 for a total of $66,902.

In the year 1974-75, $206,980 has been spent from utility funds plus $425,000 recently paid for five acres

Old City Hall To Be Service Center

Placentia's former City Hall and Police Station at 120 South Bradford Avenue, will be converted into a Social Services Center, shared by the city's services and those of organizations allied with Calvary Church, which lies directly north of the property.

Included in the church section will be Alpha Center, a publicly funded drug abuse facility and YES, Youth Employment Service.

Joint tenancy of the buildings was approved by Placentia City Council at their last meeting, with Calvary Church, a non-denominational institution, bearing the cost of $1 per year rent and the responsibility of insurance, care and maintenance.

The church also agrees to vacate the premises in the case a buyer is found for the property.

Also to be considered in the arrangement is the possibility in the widening of Chapman Avenue, which lies on the north side of the church property, some exchange in properties might be arranged. Discussed with church officials has been a possible exchange of structures in case the street widening takes the northernmost section of the landmark church, which faces Bradford Avenue.

In the new arrangement, the front section of the former City Hall will house the city's Social Services, which will also use the next three rooms to the east.

The church section and its allied groups, will occupy the back of that building with uses including offices for directors and outreach workers. The layout also includes a recreation room and a shared conference room. There will also be room for storage.

In the former police section of the building, Calvary Church will maintain an arts and crafts room, storage, group discussion room, Youth Employment Service, creative activities, a dark room, counseling office, Helpline office,

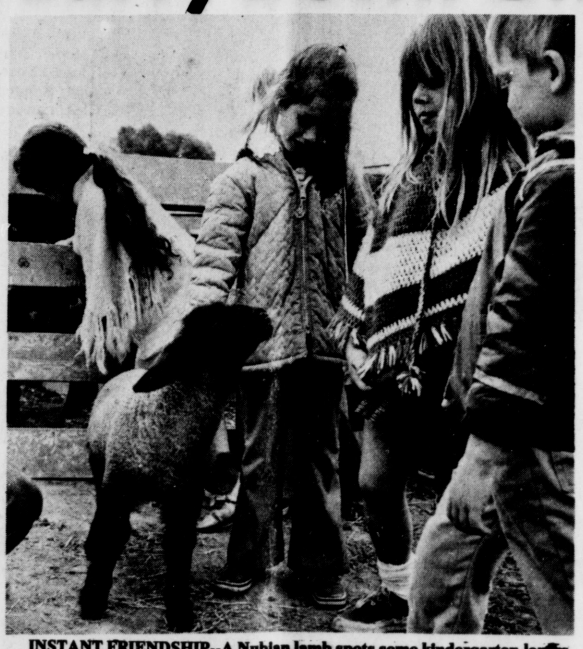
Learning Starts Early Down On The PUSD Farm

WATCHING THINGS HAPPEN--is exciting for the young farmers, who were recently promoted from Mrs. Marjorie Langer's first grade class at Golden Elementary School. As part of a bird study project, first graders hatched and incubated their very own baby chicks. Enjoying this kind of school and science project are Tim Ossola [left] and Paul Jorgenson.



INSTANT FRIENDSHIP--A Nubian lamb spots some kindergarten lambs from Van Buren Elementary School, Placentia. And the result is instant friendship. Kindergarten youngsters were on a tour of the Valencia High School Agricultural farms, where they were introduced to lambs, goats, horses and other farmyard friends. Petting her gentle new friend is Jill Hendrickson while Gail Bretts and Jeff Carlson wait a turn. Sally Marispini has found a lamb of her own on the other side of the fence.

WATCHING THINGS GROW can be fun in any language and these youngsters, enrolled in a special preschool at McFadden Elementary School are doing it in both English and Spanish. The garden they planted themselves and tended it carefully through the school year. Teacher for these young gardeners is Mrs. Angelita O'Rourke and minding the farm are Carmen Yasis, Philip Perez, Gilbert Alvarado, Danielle Anderson and Juan Martinez.

Letters To The Editor

Vandalism On Campus

To the Editor:

To--The citizens and taxpayers and to the parents of the senior class of '75 of Valencia High School.

From--A concerned taxpayer and parent.

Last Wednesday night, June 11th, the senior class of 1975 had a "grad nite party" in the Valencia High School campus in their "Senior Quad." This is an annual event for all graduating senior classes. And it is always a disaster for the school.

This year, however, was an exception. The class of '75 made it a complete disaster. And the damage these hoodlums did was done--and get this--was done With Administrative Approval, i.e. "as long as there is no vandalism." The administration even called the police to tell them that the kids had permission to be on campus after dark and would be "papering the campus" with rolls of toilet tissue so don't be concerned.

Well, this is what the great class of '75 did to that campus in a few hours:

1. They of course "papered" the whole campus--trees, bushes, buildings, which is standard procedure. Now let's get down to the "constructive" things they did, this great class of '75.

2. They sawed three-fourths through a beautiful 15-year-old shade tree. That tree had to be cut down by a 3-man work crew which took all day to cut up the tree, remove the stump and clean up the debris.

3. They took all colors of poster paint, smeared obscenities and "'75 Rules" all over the Senior Quad, the brick walls of the buildings, walks and every window in sight (have you ever tried to get paint off of brick?)

4. All door handles on classrooms were then smeared with grease and vaseline so that the students and teachers wouldn't miss their handiwork on reopening of the final day of school on Thursday.

5. Then since the school locked up all large trash containers or bins on anticipation of this summer carnage, they then went to the Kraemer campus and rolled their trash bin into Valencia's quad area and dumped its contents all around the central campus area along with pounds upon pounds of confetti and discarded student pictures. No, they're not through yet. Read on.

6. Now we tear off the 6' by 10' gates (2) and drag them up to the main quad area and lean them against the entrance to the classes in the Science Building. (They were still there Friday).

7. Then we wind it all up with the usual pyramid of all the trash cans from the campus piled high in front of the Student Council room and then pile all the picnic benches into a pyramid in the center of the Senior Quad as a final tribute to the prowess of the great class of 1975.

"Class of '75 Rules". And well they did. Where was the administration who gave "permission" for the carnage? Most likely home looking at the boob tube.

Have you taxpayers in the Placentia Unified School District any idea of the man hours involved in this annual mess? The replacement costs for glass and broken and destroyed taxpayers' property (and remember, they were given "permission" to do this "but with no Vandalism"). And you think your school taxes are too high. What do you think would have happened to the recent bond election if you knew about this lack of interest in school property by both administrators and students at Valencia High School (to say nothing about what happened on the campuses of El Dorado and Esperanza--you can be sure it will be kept quiet.) What is the Board of Education doing about this? Call and ask them--I dare you to--you'd better. It's your money.

Oh, incidentally, where was your son or daughter of the class of '75 on Wednesday night?

Copley News Service

Although parity in strategic arms has been the announced goal of the United States and Russia in their SALT (Strategic Arms Limitation Treaty) negotiations, the results of SALT II may turn out to be about as equal as horse--and--rabbit stew: one horse and one rabbit--with the United States on the short end of the recipe.

Indications are that the negotiators are under pressure to come up with an agreement in time for President Ford and Soviet party boss Leonid Brezhnev to sign when the latter visits the United States in early fall. Placing a premium on speed suggests that a poor agreement is believed to be better than no agreement.

This could prove disastrous for U.S. security in the long run. And it isn't necessary.

The speed with which Congress passed the defense bill after its recent recess suggests, instead, that plenty of congressmen found the folks at home won't sit still for a weakened U.S. defense system. Against this background, the U.S. negotiating posture should be a tough one. The worry is that it won't be.

The major drawback of the proposed SALT agreement announced by Messrs. Ford and Brezhnev at Vladivostok last fall is its failure to provide for parity in missile payloads ("throw weight").

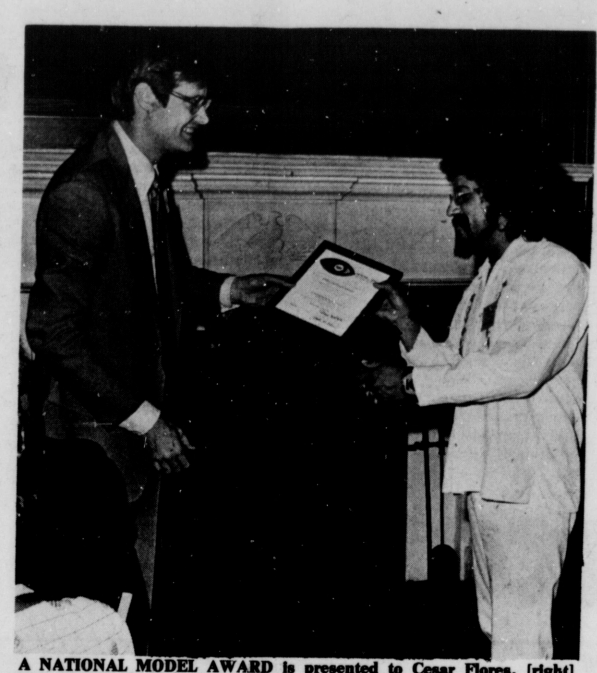
In 1972, the United States already was at a 4 to 1 disadvantage on this score.

The Soviets have since engaged in an agressive research and development program involving five new ICBMs and a new submarine missile. If they replace their existing land-based missiles with the new models and we don't deploy a new ICBM to replace our Minuteman, the payload gap will widen to 10 to 1 in the 1980s.

The grim significance of this disparity is underscored by former Deputy Secretary of Defense Paul Nitze in a recent article in "Foreign Policy." He postulates that if the Soviets wish to destrov 1,200 fixed targets (such as our missile silos), "blanket 400 squares miles of aircraft escape area, and barrage 100 aim points at sea," they would have enough throw weight available to still keep half in reserve. In other words, first-strike capability with plenty left over.

Another threat to our military forces and our cities is posed by the Soviets' new supersonic bomber. They don't want this counted in the USSR weapons total. The U.S. negotiators seem willing to go along with this idea, despite the dangers. There may be a quid pro quo in the works, but virtually nothing is being said publicly.

Though the Vladivostok proposal calls for limiting the number of strategic weapons, it doesn't prevent them from being fitted with multiple warheads (MIRVs). This makes it all the more essential that we negotiate an agreement which provides for accurate MIRV verification and, at the same time, calls for equality of throw weight.



A NATIONAL MODEL AWARD is presented to Cesar Flores, [right] Program Director of El Teatro Espiritu de Aztlan, based in Placentia, by Dr. Robert L. Du Pont, Director of the National Institute of Drug Abuse. The awards luncheon was held recently in the Senate wing of the Capitol Building in Washington, D.C. and honored the Placentia Theater group along with ten other programs throughout the United States. The Placentia program was chosen from among 700 nominees.

Letters To The Editor

Subject Is Chapman Widening

To the Editor:

The following letter was written on my behalf to Charles Post III, the City Attorney of Placentia and is self explanatory.

Peter Laborde

Dear Mr. Post:

This office represents Mr. Peter Laborde of Laborde Realty who owns property in his business on the north side of Chapman Street within the City of Placentia. The purpose of this letter is to put the City on notice that a change in alignment of Chapman Avenue at ths time may subject the City to legal action.

In 1961 the City enacted Ordinances Number 246 and 247 adopting a master plan for streets and highways. Recently, the City Engineer has been ordered to make studies regarding a possible new alignment of Chapman Avenue, either north or south of this location as shown on map entitled "Master Plan of Streets and Highways of City of Placentia."

Mr. Laborde has located his business on Chapman Avenue in approximately 1967 on the reliance of the fact that the alignment would be in accordance with the adopted master plan. At this time the City demanded that Mr. Laborde dedicate certain frontage for ultimate street widening and that he make a cash deposit to cover the ultimate cost of the street improvements. Subsequent to that time, Mr. Laborde has made a considerable investment in developing a good will for business.

Recently, Mr. Laborde inquired as to the need for the City possibly realigning Chapman Avenue. He was told that the City never adopted any precise alignment; and that the present action on the part of the City was merely to provide a precise aligment for the general plan adopted in 1961. While the original intent of the City may have been to only generalize the alignment, the language of the Ordinance itself as well as the subsequent action taken by the City requiring dedication and improvement deposits, turn such generalizations into a precise plan.

While it is true that a public body can change its mind and can acquire by eminent domain private property for a public purpose, such must be done in accordance with law. If the City now desires to change its mind, we believe not only must they show a change in circumstances; but must make such change in a general plan in conformity with Section 65402 et seq., of the Government Code.

But we do not believe any change of circumstances have come about to warrant any realignment. In fact, it is the City's position that the only reason for considering a realignment is that a precise alignment was never formulated. From what we have previously stated, we believe that to be untrue.

Inasmuch as the usual eminent domain proceeding would not compensate Mr. Laborde for any loss of good will, such action by the City could not properly compensate Mr. Laborde for his investment as well as his change in position. Therefore, if a precise plan was not adopted at the time Mr. Laborde's building location in 1967, there was a fraud on the part of the City in demanding dedication and accepting funds for the cost of the improvements as shown on the adopted Master Plan.

In conclusion, we request that you advise the City Council that Mr. Laborde does not intend to sit idly by while the City plays with his property rights as though he had no investment in them.

Very truly yours,
Robert A. Von Esch, Jr.

Dog Licensing A Rip-Off

To the Editor:

We strongly oppose Orange County's new dog licensing fees which become effective July 1, 1975. They are nothing more than a county rip-off of dog owners.

Responsibility of Fido's owners is as much a factor as the ability of that pet to procreate. This is totally ignored by the county when the rate was doubled to $10 annually for a regular dog. Spaying costs about $35 to $50 for a female and neutering a male amounts to about $30 to $40. It would take from six to ten years to recoup just the dollar investment which a responsible owner handles just as well at no investment.

Procreation may be one factor of concern, but we disagree with socking it to all owners of regular dogs, regardless of their past history. These persons are not only their pets' best friends, but also friends of the county. Still, we are soaked with a doubled fee.

Dog owners have been convenient suckers, so perhaps it is time to demand licensing of all cats. We have owned and loved cats and have found no reason why they are unlicensed pets.

If county powers want to change the rules against the majority of dog owners, then solutions should include important factors.

1. Why not put down the cudgel and encourage owner responsibility when it is lacking.

2. Why not offer information freely to owners instead of making them piece together scraps of knowledge from assorted secretaries?

3. Why not communicate to elicit cooperation of all pet owners, if the pet population problem is of concern. In light of the number of cats in our neighborhood, here is part of it.

Public relations with dog owners hit a new low and might produce opposite results. Some may not license their dogs for the first time, keeping them inside their property. Others may react in disgust by letting their dogs roam freely, serving their pets and neighbors poorly.

Some have watched dogs run loose on the streets for years or have had to clean up their own yard following an unwelcome visit. Government should make responsibility worthwhile and make negligence costly.

While the law favoring neutered dogs is a state law, according to the County Counsel, the discriminatory fee itself was set by the Orange County Board of Supervisors. Owners can let their representative know their sentiments.

Most cities write up a contract with the county body to cover animal enforcement needs whether large or small. It's six of one or half dozen of the other to an owner whether his license fee must be sent in or is part of a city tax rate.

We've had dogs in two counties for over fifteen years. None of them has ever cost either county one cent beyond collecting the money and sending the tag. Because of this, we resent and protest this discriminatory charge which places so little value on our efforts.

Unless more constructive actions are begun for the future, this is only the beginning of more costly restrictions. The pleasure of dog ownership could go out of the window unless what you do is as important as what Fido does.

Wheels that don't squeak will get no grease.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Goff,

Exchange Of Letters

Widening Creates Problems

Placentia City Councilmen:

In reference to Mr. Minamide's letter dated May 21, 1975, I feel that I must write to you to explain my position in this matter.

I am against the removal of the parkway on the west side of my property due to the fact that its removal will endanger the welfare and safety of my family. Not only will our safety be jeopardized, but the safety of pedestrian and motorists also. Removal of the parkway will block my visibility when backing out of our garage, therefore, endangering lives.

Also of great concern to me is that the removal of the parkway will also bring the traffic flow much closer to my residence.

Mr. Minamide proposed building a garage on the east side of my property. My wife, Mrs. Guerrero, did not reject the proposal as stated in his letter. We only rejected having to pay for the expenses of his proposal.

I strongly urge you to reconsider his proposed action. Of utter importance to me is the danger his action would place upon my family. I also feel since this action was proposed by the city staff it should be completely funded by the city.

Marcelino Guerrero

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Guerrero:

We have contracted the City of Fullerton regarding the possibility of re-striping the street to provide four lanes of traffic on Placentia Avenue by eliminating parking along the west side of Placentia Avenue. This would postpone the need to widen the street along your property. Fullerton has indicated an unwillingness to accept this, however, due to loss of parking stalls along Spires Restaurant and loss of left turn pockets.

This will also confirm Mrs. Guerrero's verbal rejection of our previous suggestion for the City to participate towards the construction of a parking facility on your property off Sunset Drive. It is our intent, therefore, to proceed with the widening of the street within our existing right-of-way as originally planned. A driveway approach will be reconstructed to allow access to your existing garage from Placentia Avenue. We appreciate your working with us to this point, but staff finds that since we would be confining our work within existing right of way, we would be hard pressed to justify any additional expenditures.

We will contact you prior to the start of any construction and invite you to contact us if you have any questions.

Yours very truly,
Ben Minamide, P.E.

Fred Aguirre May Offer Resignation

Alfred Aguirre, trustee of the Placentia Library District, and former Mayor Pro Tem of the city of Placentia, indicated this week that he may be resigning his seat on the city's Planning Commission.

Aguirre, who is a contractor and is employed also by the city of Anaheim, said that the amount of work required for both his library duties and planning commission office was too heavy "to allow proper time."

Having missed three planning commission meetings consecutively without excused absence Aguirre's position was discussed at the last meeting of the planning commission and the information, as required by procedure, passed on as information to the city council.

coffee room, reception room and a waiting room.

Services offered by Alpha Center are to include a 24-hour Monday through Saturday Crisis Helpline service; on-site counseling; family programs; drug abuse program with heroin addict outreach and drug counseling.

Also an early intervention program and Project SEA, a School of Educational Alternatives through Valencia High School and an El Camino Real Continuation School agenda. Neighborhood Block Clubs and the Youth Employment Service are other planned services.

Mike McMillan, Assistant Director of Alpha Center, said the organization has principally been financed by revenue sharing funds and next year is seeking approximately a $75,000 budget. The group has three full time workers, three part time and several others who are there from a variety of programs and public projects, for training.

"Our case load is growing," McMillan explains. "In fact, we're swamped." He said the organization is now seeking to evolve methods of evaluation to see how effective is their work with truancy, drugs and other social problems.

Much of the Center's work is from probation referrals, McMillan explained. The organization was first established two years ago and has operated from Calvary Church.

The city's Social Services Department, with a staff of four, is now functioning from a central office in the Backs Community Building and offices in both the Jack Gomez and Chester Whitten Community Centers.

SoCalWater- The Service Company Who Cares

There's more to caring for your 24-hour water service than meets the eye. The variety of jobs is wide. It ranges from the computer programmer to the employee who samples water for Health Department standard tests.

Further there's variety in the working lives of SoCalWater service pro's. Their training and experience equips them to handle more than one job. Example: observe the man who takes periodic water samples on our system for chemical and biological tests to meet the high standards set by State and County government health services.

Between water sampling you will find him handling service calls; checking pumps or reservoir flow charts. It's easy to see why there's more to caring for your water service than meets the eye. And doing these myriad jobs well is why your quality water service always is ready at the turn of a tap. We care for your water service.

The program last approximately one hour.

The week of June 30 will feature the Walt Disney favorite, Napoleon and Samantha. It is the story of a youth living in the mountains. A lion and two runaway children are the central characters in the film.

Movies will be shown at Vaqueros Park Tuesday 1 p.m.; and McFadden Park Tuesday 3 p.m., 7:30 p.m.; Kraemer Park Wednesday 10:30 a.m.; Morse School Wednesday 1:30 p..; Koch Park Thursday 1 p.m. and Ninos Park (Atwood) Thursday 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Slo Pitch League Is Speeding Up

Alpha Beta behind two hit pitching of Nick Zaccagnino and a 21 hit attack, destroyed State Farm Insurance 24-1 in Monday night's Slo Pitch at McFadden.

In other games, Willard Custom Cabinets got home runs from Dwain Morgan and Mike Dobbons to defeat Placentia Nazarene Church 11-4, and the Placentia Police came from behind three times and finally defeated Old Time Pizza 19-16.

Alpha Beta and the Placentia Police are both undefeated with 2-0 records.

Tuesday night action saw Steve Morrone pitch a one hitter as All Star Trophy trounced the Evangelist Free Church 15-0. Mr. Woodys scored thirteen runs in the first inning on their way to a 28-8 victory over Ronman Products, and Pro Am got 34 hits to defeat Calvary Church 32-1 in a game called after five innings.

Bob-Etts To Hold Election

The annual general election meeting of the Bob-Etts, girls softball league, will be held at 8 p.m., Wednesday, June 25 at Wagner Elementary School in Placentia, the group announced this week.

All managers, coaches, sponsors and parents involved with Bob-Etts are urged to attend. A board of officers for the 1976 season will be elected.

July 4th Program Growing

Plans for this year's musical pre-show at Placentia's annual 4th of July Fireworks Show are nearly complete with the addition of the Les Fouche Dancers, Henry Love, and Sam Battaglia to the cast of "Bumps" Blackwell's "Portraits in Pastel," the Placentia-Yorba Linda Y's Men sponsors said this week.

They will assist Bessie Griffin, Charlie Barnett's Breadbasket Choir and La Cossa Nostra in a fast-moving musical revue.

This is the fifth annual 4th of July show sponsored by the Y's Men of Placentia and Yorba Linda, a service club supporting the YMCA. The musical show precedes a bigger-than-ever fireworks show at Valencia High School Stadium.

The Les Fouche Dancers, Carlo Fouche, choreographer, have performed across the nation, from New York and Boston to the Dunes Hotel in Las Vegas, and to the Hacienda International Hotel in Los Angeles. They have been critically acclaimed for their graceful but energetic, even breathtaking performances the group said.

Henry Love, bongo drummer, brings a Caribbean beat to the show with his exciting limbo rhythms. Sam Battaglia, a new, young performer from Whittier, sings and plays in an Elvis Presley manner and style.

The show will start at 7 p.m. on Friday, the 4th of July, at Valencia High School. Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for children 12 and under.

"Peggy's Pointers"
"Every Home Has One"

As you are working to decorate your own home, don't you find that you occasionally encounter problem areas? It always seems that the builder has thrown you a curve just where you needed a straight line, or he's put the window right where you thought there ought to be a wall.

Problems in a home can work out to be interesting focal points, or cleverly designed areas within a room. It helps to work with a plan.

Recently, I had a customer with a very difficult nook. On one side was a 16 foot window, on another, the wall for the staircase landing. On another wall, just 7 feet away, a fireplace, and the fourth side opened into her living room. What a dilemma! She solved her problem by draping the window from floor to ceiling, and placing two sections of a very comfortable modular sofa across from the fireplace. She managed to salvage "dead space" and turn it into a very cozy and inviting alcove.

Are you stuck? Come on down and talk it over - we'll help you turn that problem into a pleasure.

REGARDS,
Peggy

Hospital As Receiving Unit For Paramedeics

Placentia-Linda Community Hospital (PLCH) has been selected as one of the receiving hospitals of the Yorba Linda Paramedic Unit by the Orange County Health Department.

At PLCH the emergency center is alert for any medical catastrophe, according to Jean McGarrity of the public relations staff. The department is designed and equipped with all crisis facilities.

Together with a skilled staff, a licensed emergency physician and registered nurse are on duty 24 hours every day. This team is backed up by special care departments.

EMERGENCY ROOM--The emergency room at Placentia-Linda Hospital is equipped to handle medical needs of people brought in by the paramedic team.

Whether the patient can be cared for on an emergency basis or needs acute care through admittance to the hospital, the emergency center provides total care at all times.

In this sense, every clinical department of PLCH is an area of the emergency system.

When patients arrive by ambulance or private means, there are five emergency stations which are draped for privacy. Each station is equipped with a special guerney which can be shifted to any needed area position, and all gases and suction are installed for each. A portable X-ray machine is available when needed.

The "crash" room, located in the emergency department, is a hospital within a hospital. Completely equipped with monitors, EKG and a defibrillator, the room facilitates care without loss of time for patients brought in by a paramedic. Pre-measured doses of medicine and other supplies are at hand for the cardiac patient who requires immediate treatment.

Other services such as cardio-pulmonary, physical therapy, radiology, nuclear medicine and pathology, are located adjacent to the emergency center. The surgery is located in the same area.

Intensive care and critical-care units (ICU-CCU) are included in the back-up for patients admitted for acute care. The pediatric department provides follow-up care for young people.

The patient's own physician is provided with all clinical details for continuing care, whatever the circumstances.

"Sudden severe illness or an accident can be a very traumatic experience for a patient, his family and friends," Ms. McGarrity points out, adding that most people are not prepared for it and must rely on professional help.

The emergency department also recommends that parents or guardians of those under age 18 complete a "Consent to Treat a Minor" card. These cards, which are kept on file in the emergency department, can prevent serious delays in the event a minor requires emergency care.

Fast Pitch Slides In

Webb TV and the Alpha Center remained undefeated in the Placentia Fast Pitch League as Webb nipped CBS Musical 2-1 and the Alpha Center downed Yorba Linda Friends 6-3.

The No Names evened their record at 1-1 as they held off a late rally by Hartwell Corporation to win 9-8.

Webb TV ended a scoreless tie in the sixth with two runs. With two outs and Ruben Gallo at first, Frank Navarrette tripled in the first run and Jess Duran followed with a run scoring single to give Webb a 2-0 lead.

CBS scored their only run on a leadoff homerun by Art Ortiz in the sixth.

The Alpha Center scored two runs in the first and two in the third to take on an early lead of 4-0 in their win over Yorba Linda. Jim Engart paced the win with a two for three night and two RBI's.

Mike Alley and Jim O'Connor each slammed three run home runs to help the No Names over Hartwell. Hartwell scored all their runs in the final three innings on only four hits as the No Names commited five errors and gave up five walks to keep the game close.

Placentia's Turn To Wear Halos

Community night will be celebrated on Wednesday, July 9 at 7:30 p.m. Cost of tickets for the Angels vs. Baltimore baseball game for that evening will be $2.50 for the $3.50 seat, a savings of $1 per seat. The terrace level seats offered are within the first and third base lines.

Tuneful Concert Sunday

The Young Life Singers and Orchestra, the Anaheim Pops Chorale, and the Orange Empire Chorus will present a band concert on Sunday, June 29 from 2 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. at Kraemer Park in Placentia.

The Young Life Singers are a group of high school and college students 15 to 27 years of age who have performed throughout the United States. The Singers have been seen by over one million people via television specials and are planning another one on a local network in the near future. The group has grown from 30 to 100 and will provide a full hour of musical entertainment.

Following the Young Life Singers will be the anaheim Pops Chorale. Under the direction of John Sawyer, the Singers will present a portion of their Minstrel Show. The Pops Chorale, a non profit organization has sponsored many special concerts for charitable organizations and participates in many chorale festivals throughout the year.

The Orange Empire Chorus will follow with a 30 minute performance, to conclude the festivities. The Fullerton Chapter of the (S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A.) Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, has planned a singout including audience participation and comedy. Their music will span from the turn of the century to modern tunes set to Barbershop harmony.

Yogurt Flavors

Fruit flavors were successfully combined with yogurt in the past decade. Strawberry is the leading favorite, followed by blueberry, raspberry, and plain. More than a dozen flavors are now found in yogurt and people who create their own yogurt at home often experiment with other exotic combinations.

HOW TO SUCCEED AT RETIREMENT with just a little help from Perpetual

Retirement with enough funds to see you through the years ahead is something just about everyone looks forward to. But maybe you never got started on a retirement plan because you work for yourself or for a company that has no plan. Well, now Perpetual Savings has a nice answer to your needs.

If you are self employed you may qualify for annual savings of up to $7500 tax free from now until you retire or attain the age of 70½, under the provisions of the Keogh Act, also known as HR-10.

If you work for a company that has no retirement plan for employees, you may save up to $1500 tax free each year until you retire or attain the age of 70½, under an Individual Retirement Plan.

Both of these plans offer those who qualify an important tax shelter as well as an investment that grows dramatically with interest compounded daily over the years. You enjoy the advantage of a large annual tax-free deduction from earnings during the working years plus the opportunity to pay lower taxes on retirement when gross income is apt to be less. Come to Perpetual for complete details.

Clothing Items Needed

Lend-A-Hand, a nonprofit organization, is seeking articles for free distribution to families in the southern part of Placentia.

Mrs. Rosa Garcia, president of the organization, said this week, badly needed are clothing, household goods and furniture of all kinds.

Other apparel that is in need are bathing suits, all sizes and kinds for use in the two public pools that have just opened.

For pick-up of articles, which must be useable and in good condition, people in the area may call Maxine Marolda at 528-4141 or Mrs. Garcia at 630-4995.

Mrs. Garcia said in many cases the need is acute and any useable items will be appreciated.

Library Plans Children's Summer Fun

The Yorba Linda District Library's 1975 Summer Reading Program will kick-off Monday June 23. The staff hopes to make the next five weeks stimulating and fun for everyone with a number of special events and activities.

A Glue-in is the first special event and will "happen" on Wednesday, June 25 at 10:30 in the children's department. At a glue-in budding sculptors and architects create whatcha-ma-call-its and other interesting things from scrap wood and white glue. The following day at 10:00 a.m. horse fanciers can learn about horse care from an expert.

An oragami session is scheduled for June 30 at 10:30 and the hours from 9:00 - 10:00 a.m. on July 2 and 9 will be devoted to learning how to knit finger puppets. Children and adults both are invited to attend this class and create one or more of these whimsical characters.

In addition a drama group will meet each Monday afternoon at 1:30. They will choose and produce a play, with assistance from parents, which will be presented August 8 in the library's multi-purpose room.

Vietnamese Ministers To Speak At Calvary Church

On Sunday, June 29, at the 9:30 a.m. service, Pastor Nguyen Ba Quang and Rev. Nguyen Thi, who have recently come to this country from Vietnam, will speak at the Calvary Church of Placentia, 102 S. Bradford Avenue, on the state and future of the Christian Church in Vietnam.

Pastor Quang had worked as an assistant pastor in an evangelical church in Vietnam until he was drafted into the South Vietnamese Army in 1962. After eight years of military service, he was able to complete his theological training in the Philippines (1970-74). During that time he served part-time in the broadcast ministry of the Far East Broadcasting Company.

Pastor Thi had desired to work as a pastor during his student days, but the need to care for his parents delayed the beginning of his theological training until 1969. He was graduated with honors in 1973 from a theological seminary sponsored by Overseas Crusades in Manila. During his time in Manila, he worked as a part-time broadcaster for the Far East Broadcasting Company. His radio program "Take Five for Faith" became very popular in Viet Nam.

Dr. Eugene Bettermann

Pastors Thi and Quang and other Vietnamese staff members of the Far East Broadcasting company are preparing scripts and producing taped programs for an increased schedule of Gospel and music programming in the daily coverage of North and South Viet Nam. FEBC has 26 transmitters and broadcasts the Gospel in 73 major languages and dialects. More than 400 staff members, of whom 75 per cent are citizens of the countries served by the company's stations, work in this radio outreach, which extends literally around the world.

The two Vietnamese pastors will be accompanied by Dr. Eugene R. Bertermann, the Executive Director of the Whittier-based FEBC. Previous to his appointment to his present position, Dr. Bertermann had been associated with the Lutheran Hour; he oversaw the growth of this well-known religious broadcast from an English-only, two-station program in 1935 to a fifty-nine-language, 1330-station program. He has served as an officer or board member for several Christian organizations working in communications.

The public is cordially invited, to attend the services.

Nutrition, often confused with diatetics, is the study of how foods once consumed, affect your being. Nutrition is a personal matter and often determines how you look, act and feel.

To a great extent your body is composed of protein: Skin, muscles, internal organs, hair, nails, the base of your bones and even your brain. It becomes evident then that a sensible and health-giving diet is not to be determined solely by bulk or lack thereof, but in provision for an adequate protein intake to keep each cell functioning normally.

We hope it is also very evident that the place to bring your prescriptions for prompt, accurate filling is our convenient, well-stocked pharmacy. LINDA VISTA PHARMACY offers many extra services such as Family Record Plan, Record of Tax-Deductible Purchases, Charge Accounts and Delivery Service...all at NO EXTRA CHARGE!

CHURCH SERVICES

OVATION

Valencia High School's activities director John DeNike received a surprise honor at the awards assembly when Placentia American Legion Post presented him with a plaque for nine years of work with the post's speech contest. Students gave him a standing ovation.

Rev. Hendrix At Calvary

On Sunday, July 6, Calvary Church of Placentia will have speakers from the American Missionary Fellowship, based at Villanova, Pennsylvania.

In the 9:30 a.m. Service, Rev. Olan Hendrix, General Director of the Fellowship, will present general information concerning the organization, its goals and purposes, and its present activities and ministries.

Rev. Hendrix had served as a pastor in several "back east" churches, and from 1959 to 1969 he was Home Director of the Far Eastern Gospel Crusade, a missionary organization with personnel in various countries of the Far East. In July, 1970, he joined the American Missionary Fellowship as General Director.

In addition to his pastoral and administrative experience, he has conducted management skills seminars for pastors and Christian leaders in 28 countries, and is the author of "Management and the Christian Worker." He has also had extensive experience as a management consultant for church-related and Christian organizations.

At the 6 p.m. service, Rev. Bob Bunnell, an AMF representative in the Los Angeles area will head a team that will give a closer look at the work of the Fellowship in inner city. One of Bunnell's aims in his work with minority groups is to help them find forms for worship and church organization that fit in with their culture patterns and view of life.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

COMMENTS FROM CALVARY
by R.W. CUNNINGHAM

"THEY" told us to relax about sex, take off our clothes and not get all up tight about it and there would be no more sex crimes. SO WE DID, and the incidence of rape is increasing at an alarming rate.

"THEY" told us that we should go easy on criminals. So the rate of violent crime increased rapidly; 15% this year alone!

"THEY" told us to boot God out of our schools and to rely on permissive education. So we graduated a generation with refined intellects and undisciplined emotions. Teen age suicides have soared 92% in two years!

"THEY" told us that alcoholism and drug addiction were sicknesses. "THEY" told us that marriage was old fashioned and that trial marriages would help. The odds now are that 2 in 7 of the babies born will be illegitimate.

"THEY" have softened our laws and eased up on the punishment. Yet "they" advocate the murder of unborn infants and deny the scriptural precept of capital punishment.

EVERY UGLY HEADLINE in our newspapes say that SIN IS STILL SPELLED WITH A CAPITAL "S" and still brings the same inevitable consequences.

This earth came with "A BOOK OF INSTRUCTIONS CALLED THE BIBLE." It says, "If a man won't work, let him not eat." It says, "That women are to wear modest apparel." It says, "Thou shalt not steal, ANYTHING." It says, "Don't look on the wine when it is red." WHY NOT TRY THE BIBLE AS YOUR GUIDE? IT TEACHES LIFE LIVED TO THE FULLEST.

Church To Present Play

Over 30 members of the Yorba Linda congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will perform in a play to be presented at the "Divine Sovereignty" District Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses, Joe Belleza, presiding overseer of the congregation, has announced.

The assembly will be held June 26 to 29 at Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles.

The play, a representation of the story of Noah, will be given June 28 at 3:30 p.m. before an anticipated audience of 50,000, Belleza said. Another 50,000 are expected to see the same presentation at a later performance July 12, also at Dodger Stadium.

According to Belleza, the presentation, which has been in rehearsal for many weeks, will be staged in authentic historical costume.

The play is one of four that will be performed at Jehovah's Witnesses' conventions scheduled this year throughout the United States and Canada. All will be presented free, with no reservations necessary, Belleza said.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES--Members of the Yorba Linda Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses rehearse for their play to be presented on June 26 to 29 at Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles.

Healthy Baby Summer

At the recent City Council meeting, the Placentia Round Table and the Placentia Junior Round Table jointly received a proclamation declaring July 4 as the kick-off date for Healthy Baby Summer.

The aim of the drive is to stress the importance of early checkups and consistent prenatal care for all pregnant women. This will insure the health of both mother and child.

Myra Frank and Lynn McClard, health co-chairmen of the Placentia Junior Round Table announced that in conjunction with Healthy Baby Summer, the first Placentia baby born July 4 will be honored.

The group also plans to make layettes for needy children. These will be distributed by the March of Dimes Foundation.

Color Guard Launches Bicenntenial

The award winning El Dorado High School color guard helped Childrens Hospital of Orange County officially launch its Bicentennial celebration recently when they participated in a special flag raising ceremony on the CHOC front lawn.

At that time, a large replica of the "Bennington 76" version of the Stars and Stripes was raised to the top of the hospital's flagpole.

El Dorado's color guard was recently named first place winner in the California statewide competition and last week won top honors among the eight western states in Las Vegas, Nevada. The young men making up the group are all members of the Placentia school's Air Force ROTC unit and are under the direction of Air Force Chief Master Sgt. Bill McKinsey.

Changes Made In Police Department

Placentia Police Chief Norman Traub announced today that Lieutenant John L. Wiggins has resigned from the department.

Wiggins came to the department from the Orange County District Attorney's Office in September, 1973. His present plans are to attend law school as a full-time student.

As a result of the vacancy, Sergeant James Robertson, Officer of the Year for 1974, has been appointed Acting Lieutenant in charge of the Investigation Division.

Lieutenant Walt Pichon was transferred from the Investigation Division to head the Uniform Division.

Elks Seeking Charter

Authority to charter an Elks Lodge in the Placentia-Yorba Linda area, has been granted by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the USA, Robert E. Davis, chairman of the steering committee of the new lodge, said this week.

Davis said that weeks of hard work by the steering committee and its advisors, and the efforts of more than 100 men from the two communities, means that chartering of the Placentia-Yorba Linda Elks Lodge No. 2536 is just weeks away.

"It is normal for at least 250 members to be registered in a newly formed lodge before it is chartered," Davis explained. "This means we still require another 100-plus members. The sooner they sign up the sooner the charter is issued."

Membership is open to any male over 21 living in the Placentia-Yorba Linda area. All inactive Elks, those presently associated with another lodge who might wish to become active in a lodge closer to their home, and those who have always wanted to be an Elk are urged to join the new lodge.

Davis noted that a survey has indicated almost 1,000 Elks and prospective Elks live in the two communities. "There is no question that if all of these prospective members joined we would have a very strong, active lodge," he said.

The lodge currently meets each Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Tlaquepaque Restaurant, 111 W. Santa Fe St., Placentia.

Contests Spark Co. Fair

Magicians, dancers, clowns and mimes will add sparkle to the 1975 Orange County Fair July 11-20 in a non-stop array of free entertainment.

A "Twin-O-Rama" contest for ages one to 20 will be held in the Little Theatre on Sunday, July 13, at 1 p.m. Categories will be: identical girls, identical boys, most look alike boy and girl, least look alike girls, least look alike boys, least look alike boy and girl. Entries should state in which category the contestants will participate.

On Saturday, July 19, a "Diaper Derby" will take place on the bandstand stage at 3 p.m. Contestants will be babies from six to 15 months old. Girl and boy races will be held to choose the grand winners and there will be a girl and boy sweepstake race.

Entries for "Twin-O-Rama" and the "Diaper Derby" must be postmarked before July 1. Mail entries to Orange County Fair Special Events Director 88 Fair Drive, Costa Mesa, California 92626.

The magic number is four as the Placentia Chargers, Women's softball team, still has a firm grip on the number one spot, leading their league 14 to 6.

The Chargers need to win four more, as Pasadena and Mission Viejo are threatening in a tied second spot.

The local team will go to Ontario Sunday for a league double header.

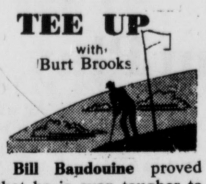
TEE UP with Burt Brooks



Bill Baudouine proved that he is even tougher to beat on the golf course than the spelling of his name when he defeated Tom Moore last Sunday at Yorba Linda Country Club in the finals of the President's Cup tournament.

Baudouine had defeated O.B. Stewart in the semi-finals last week while Tom Moore was defeating Dave Hughes.

Jim Thwing, a very popular professional golfer at Yorba Linda Country Club, was wishing that he had taken up anything but golf last Sunday as almost 20 dues paying members were unable to play golf on their own golf course, all because of a change in the rules by the present Board of Directors.

The Board changed the rules so that no guests may play on Saturday mornings but may play before 9 a.m. on Sunday. In past years guests could play before 8 a.m. at the local course on Sunday morning, so when some newer member of the club learned that their guests could play until 9 a.m., many of them jumped at the idea and 22 guests were put into prime starting times, leaving nothing open for members who had played between 8 and 9 a.m. at the local course for many years. Several of the members were able to play the back nine before the original starters on number one caught up with them.

Jim Thwing was only carrying out orders from the Board and was not his own, and should not be criticized for his action.

Club Championship play got under way at Yorba Linda last Saturday with Medal play in 4 divisions.

Johnny McGlone, former Club champion, scored a par 72 to take the first round lead in the championship flight, and he is the favorite to continue his brilliant play for the remaining 3 rounds which will be completed by play every Saturday thru July 12th.

Lyle Tripp, also a former club champ, is in second place with 76, followed by Rich Posey and Frank McCormick each scoring 77. Waverly Watkins with 78 is also in contention.

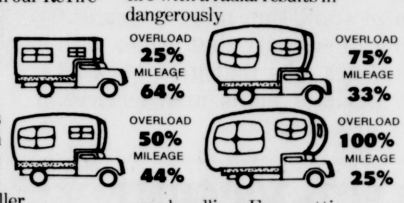
ReTIREMENT TIPS:

Miller Tire Stores will help put travellin' tires on your vacation vehicle. Whether you're visiting the folks in Peoria in your camper, or navigating Southern California's mountain roads in the family car, you'll need safe, reliable tires to get you there and back. Miller Tire Stores would like to help save you undue worry and some vacation bucks. With our ReTirement Tips for your vacation vehicle:

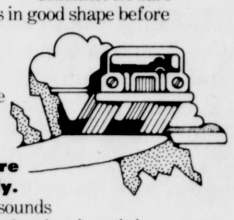
Carry that Weight. Remember that tires support just so much weight. Overloading will put a dangerous strain on tire life. Miller ReTirement specialists will help determine a safe load for your vehicle. Tire pressures should be checked weekly with a calibrated air gauge. This overload chart points out how much tire mileage is lost when you overdo it.

The Hot & Cold of It. Add air pressure when tires are cold. Hot air can give misleading readings. Miller ReTirement specialists can check for proper pressure before you hit the road. Because under-inflated tires use more gasoline and decrease tire mileage. Even little things like old valve cores and missing valve caps can cause slow but sure air leaks.

Match, Don't Mix. Be sure the same type and size of tire are on each axle. Mixing a bias tire with a radial results in dangerously poor handling. Even putting slightly different sized tires on one axle makes the larger tire carry the whole load. That creates excessive flexing and high heat buildup, which leads to rapid tread wear, possible blowouts and premature tire failures. Miller Tire Stores have a huge variety of tires for any size car or truck. We'll be sure you get the right tires.



More Than Tire Tips. Good brakes, springs and shock absorbers can save your life on twisting mountain roads or when that Kansas farmer crawls out in the road on his combine. Be sure your car is in good shape before you start. Bring it to any Miller Tire Store.



ReTire Carefully. If all this sounds complicated and serious, it is. That's why Miller Tire Stores have made it our business, since 1920, to serve you with qualified, professional ReTirement specialists. We know tires. And we'll help take care of your vacation vehicle. With accurate alignments, strong shocks, and better brakes. Come in today. For a good start on a safe, worry-free vacation.

PUSD Master Plan Eyed

The Educational Facilities Planning Committee (EFPC) of the Placentia Unified School District, presented the first part of the district's revised Master Plan, which covers future needs of the instructional program, to trustees Monday for a first reading.

Dr. Barbara Peterson, assistant superintendent of instructional services, explained that the plan concentrates on providing facilities to implement individualization of instruction, decentralization and program development and expansion.

Primary needs and recommendations for the near future are for more space for the Instructional Materials Center, housing for traveling and support personnel (psychologists, specialist teachers), more storage space for materials at the schools and reuse of available space for classrooms and multimedia labs, she said.

Staff and EFPC members will continue to revise the Master Plan and bring it to the board again at a future meeting.

EFPC chairman Al Barlow requested that the committee be reconstituted, because attendance of current members is poor. In addition, a new charge will be written to the committee pinpointing specific areas for study.

Returns From Real Estate Investments

Cheer up! It's NOT later than you think!

An official of the California Association of Realtors is convinced there is still time to realize a profitable return on an investment in real estate.

Ira Gribin, of Sherman Oaks, has produced statistics to show how a person who purchased a single-family home five years ago would have "outdistanced inflation."

Gribin is first vice president of the 80,000-member CAR, the largest state real estate organization in the nation.

The CAR spokesman is a firm believer that buying a home today remains the best investment for your dollar -- especially at a time when the high cost of living seems to be going higher.

Gribin's figures are based on a Conference Board study, the Residential Research Committee of Southern California and the Real Estate Council of Northern California.

"Home values in the San Francisco Bay area for single-family homes have jumped 38.8 percent from 1970 to 1975," Gribbin said.

"During the last five years in seven Southern California counties the prices of single-family homes have risen 46 percent."

The counties Gribin refers to are Los Angeles, Orange, Ventura, Santa Barbara, Riverside, San Bernardino and San Diego. With the exclusion of San Diego County, home values in the other six counties have accelerated at 40.7 percent since 1970.

"Personal income has risen but the purchasing power of the dollar has declined sharply due to the cost of living squeeze," Gribin stated, "except in the real estate market as confirmed by these figures."

"Incomes of Californians tend to be eroded by higher taxes on one side and a steep rate of inflation on the other."

Gribin commented that a family of four must earn $7,339 today to maintain the purchasing power of $5,295 of pre-tax income in 1970, according to the study, because the cost of living in that five year period has jumped 38.6 percent.

"Likewise," Gribin said, "statistics reveal what income a family would have to earn today to equal that same purchasing power in 1970, and the percentage rise." He cited the following:

$8,728 to $12,064, a 38.2 percent increase; $17,049 to $23,640, a 38.6 percent increase; and $45,720 to $61,380, a 34.3 percent increase.

"In comparison, the value of homes, however, has accelerated markedly in the last five years," the CAR spokesman said.

He particularly noted San Diego County which had a price increase in single-family homes of 66.9 percent; Santa Barbara County, 56.9 percent; and Orange County, 55.4 percent.

"Most people today realize that their purchasing power has dwindled, that their returns from savings accounts or most any other investment they may have made, failed to show any sizeable profits," Gribin stated.

"Yet, investment in a single-family home --- while no guarantee ---has certainly provided the investor with a healthy return for his dollar value."

THE VETERAN'S MEMORIAL FOUNTAIN, a present to the city of Placentia from Mr. and Mrs. Edward Backs, is almost completed. Here Mrs. Angeline Backs looks over final plans with City Administrator Edwin Powell [left] and her attorney William Anderson, Santa Ana. The $100,000 fountain, located in Kraemer Park, will be in operation as soon as walks and landscaping and completed.

A POPULAR MAN--Clyde Hodges, who has been custodian at Sierra Vista Elementary School ever since it was built in 1964, had a whole week set aside in his honor recently by students at the school. Culmination was a special ceremony, in which Hodges [left, above] receives a commendation from Placentia Fire Chief James Sims. Watching in back are school principal Barbara Hadzoglon and Superintendent of the Placentia Unified School District, John Tynes.

EVERYONE IN SCHOOL [above] turned out for Clyde Hodges Day and to dedicate a section of their school campus as a special flower garden in Hodge's honor. Hodges has been a Placentia resident since 1942. Master of Ceremonies for the occasion was Vick Knight, a former assistant superintendent of PUSD schools.

Teachers, Others Needed

An urgent plea for volunteer physical therapists and English instructor-assistants at Camp Pendleton has been made by Mrs. C. Temple Murphy, American Red Cross coordinator of volunteers at the refugee camp in San Clemente.

"The instructor-assistants will be assigned to support Vietnamese teachers in the camps," said Mrs. Murphy. "Duties will be to help with language skills, give assistance to individual students and help teachers with general duties."

Experienced teachers or college students are preferred. Skills in art and music would be appreciated but are not a prerequisite. "Persons who have taught English overseas would be most welcome," said Mrs. Murphy. "Registered physical therapists are also needed to work with physically handicapped children. They will work with pediatric doctors and nurses in the infirmary and camps."

from herbie's corner

By Jack Scarpa

A young couple whose home we sold came bouncing in the office, last week, carrying a cage whose occupant was a tiny parakeet; a gift for us. The little bird captured our imagination and he was immediately dubbed "Herbie". He is six weeks old and soft gray feathers with just a tinge of blue cover his small body. When the phone rings, he chirps and chirps his gay message. If there is a lull in activity, his chirp becomes indignant. I guess he likes the noise, color, phones ringing and salespeople and customers coming and going. Everyone pausing to speak a few words to Herbie.

The cage is near my desk and some wit posted a sign that states in bold red letters "Herbie's Corner". So I share my corner with a bird. I don't know whose task it will be to keep our new little friend in fresh food and water, but there's some strong indications that its going to be me. Why else is the bottom drawer of my desk labelled "Bird" and all manner of seed, grit and even a book on Bird Care neatly stowed away there?

Library

Our beautiful Placentia Library with its costly paintings, wall coverings and appointments is enjoyed by a good part of the city's population, including me. It is shocking to realize that all this beauty covers the fact that library employees earn an average of $520 a month. According to an employee bulletin this is 30 to 40% below the average paid in Orange County for similar work.

It seems to me the Library Board should make every effort to bring those wages up and provide a decent salary. How can anyone live on $520 a month?

God's Way

E.T. Sullivan wrote the following words and it seems to me there's a lot of truth in them.

"When God wants a great work done in the world or a great wrong corrected, he goes about it in a very unusual way. He doesn't stir up his earthquakes or send forth his thunderbolts. Instead he has a helpless baby born perhaps in a simple home and of some obscure mother. And then God puts the idea into the mother's heart, and she puts it into the baby's mind. And then God waits. The greatest forces in the world are not the earthquakes and thunderbolts. The greatest forces in the world are babies."

Welcome

Joining us this month are two fine people. They are Alice Matson who has been in the real estate field for two years, and Rich Everitt who began in real estate this year. We are delighted they've joined the Herbert Hawkins family and particularly this office. Call either one of them if you have any questions on real estate. They know the answers. Welcome Alice! Welcome Rich!

Dr. Barrett Is Archery Authority

An authority on archery is the new chair of the physical education department at California State University, Fullerton.

Dr. Jean A. Barrett, professor of physical education, was appointed to a three-year term by President L. Donald Shields. She succeeds Dr. Eula M. Stovall.

A Placentia resident, Miss Barrett has been at Cal State since 1963. The author of "Archery," one of the few books on the subject ever published, she also has helped develop the women's athletic program and the department's teacher education program at Cal State.

Miss Barrett earned her graduate degrees at the State University of New York at Buffalo and her bachelor's degree at Cortland State Teachers College. Before joining the Cal State Fullerton faculty she served as director of women's professional program activities at the Buffalo campus and also taught in the Williamsville, N.Y., Central School System.
